Redding Rancheria Community Fund Awards Over $105,000 to Nonprofits

The Redding Rancheria Community Fund has awarded grants to 34 nonprofits in Shasta and Trinity counties totaling $105,517. The Fund supports a variety of causes including cultural, historic, and educational activities.

"The Redding Rancheria Community Fund's commitment to supporting our local nonprofits is a testament to our dedication to enhancing the quality of life in Shasta and Trinity counties," said Tracy Edwards, Chief Executive Officer at Redding Rancheria. "These grants will empower organizations across various sectors to continue their vital work, fostering a stronger, healthier, and more vibrant community for us all."

The Redding Rancheria Community Fund, established in 2002 to support worthy causes in Shasta and Trinity counties, is one of the longest-standing funds at the Community Foundation. The fund has granted more than $4.9 million to the community.

"The Redding Rancheria's philanthropic spirit has enriched so many of our North State nonprofits," said Kerry Caranci, Chief Executive Officer at Community Foundation of the North State. "We appreciate their partnership and commitment to the future of our region."

About Community Foundation of the North State
Community Foundation of the North State is a permanent, community-centered foundation that helps individuals, families, businesses, and their professional advisors turn generosity into thoughtful, lasting impact across the North State. The Community Foundation provides donors with a single place to give cash and other assets, establish charitable funds, support multiple causes, and create charitable legacies.

With deep knowledge of the region, its nonprofits, and its changing needs, the Community Foundation administers and invests charitable assets, awards grants and scholarships, helps fund holders make informed decisions, and provides advisors with local technical expertise for their clients. For more than 25 years, people across the region have trusted the careful stewardship of the Community Foundation, creating more than $110 million in charitable impact.
