Redding Rancheria Tribal Flag Policy

SECTION 1: PURPOSE

The purpose of this Policy is to set forth the proper way to display the flags at Redding Rancheria facilities that show respect and reverence. This Policy is intended to provide guidance to Tribal Administration and Staff on how various flags are to be displayed when flown at Redding Rancheria properties.

SECTION 2: BACKGROUND AND INTENT

Background:

Flags have long been used to represent people, governments, cultures, significant historical events, social movements, and to call attention to injustice. The Redding Rancheria adopted its Tribal Flag as a representation of its pride in its history, culture, natural resources, and the three Tribes that make up its membership. The Tribal Flag contains an image of the Tribal Seal in the center and is bordered by using the traditional symbols of the Pit River, Yana, and Wintu Tribes in an alternating pattern. In addition to the Tribal Flag, Redding Rancheria facilities routinely display the American Flag, the State Flag of California, Special Cause Flags, and/or Organizational Flags.

It is necessary to set forth the proper manner and times for flags to be displayed that reflect the respect and reverence that they deserve because of the people, governments, culture, and events that they seek to represent.

Intent:

The intent of this Policy is to provide guidance to Tribal Administration and Staff on the proper manner to display the Tribal, American, State, Organizational and/or Special Cause Flags.
