Redding Rancheria Community Fund Awards over $100,000 in Spring Grants

The Redding Rancheria Community Fund has awarded grants to 43 nonprofits in Shasta and Trinity counties for their Spring grant cycle. The total funds distributed is $112,688 and will support organizations in the arts, youth services, education, public safety, and healthcare.

"The Redding Rancheria Community Fund's commitment to supporting our local nonprofits is a testament to our dedication to enhancing the quality of life in Shasta and Trinity counties," said Tracy Edwards, Chief Executive Officer at Redding Rancheria. "These grants will empower organizations across various sectors to continue their vital work, fostering a stronger, healthier, and more vibrant community for us all."

The Redding Rancheria Community Fund was established in 2002 at the Community Foundation of the North State to support worthy causes in Shasta and Trinity counties. It is one of the longest-standing funds at the Community Foundation and has granted out over $4.6 million since inception.

"The good created through the Redding Rancheria Community Fund has been so instrumental in the health and success of our North State communities," said Kerry Caranci, Chief Executive Officer at Community Foundation of the North State. "The Redding Rancheria has been with us since the beginning and been a steadfast partner in championing philanthropy."

About Community Foundation of the North State

Your local partner for charitable giving, the Community Foundation champions generosity in the North State for regional impact, leadership, and support. Whether it be a bequest from someone with a passion for a cause, a scholarship established in memory of a loved one or community member, or a nonprofit agency looking to ensure sustainability of their operations for the long haul, we connect these vital contributors to lift our region for greater good.

We are a nonprofit, public charity serving the people of Shasta, Siskiyou, and Tehama counties, with a mission to impact the region through the power of giving. Since 2000, the Community Foundation has awarded over $64 million in grants, made possible by the generosity of their fund holders and professional fund management practices.
